

Please delay the change on media consolidation. You obviously have received many complaints on this rush to push this through (among other things - your phone message). How, in good conscience, can you allow the way we receive our information on what goes on in our world to be controlled without being fully informed with the pros and cons on sides!